A Fistful of Collars ONE Heard you drove another one off a cliff, ” said Nixon Panero. He spat a thin brown stream of chewing tobacco into an empty paint can, or maybe not that empty. Yellow paint, the yellow of egg yolks, now with a brown swirl in the middle: there ’ s all kinds of beauty in life. “ You heard wrong, ” said Bernie. Uh-oh.

A Fistful of Charms Chapter Eleven The wind was bitter despite the bright morning sun, and I squinted at the horizon, holding onto the side of the boat as we jostled out to the wreck site. Jenks sat beside me in the lee of the cabin, both amazed and appalled that he could see his breath and wasn't freezing to death.

Looking at eBay, I can see both an older ribbed-metal design and a newer (Rokkor-X vintage) rubber-grip design. Both have the same optics. Back in the late 1970s, I tested a whole bunch of 28mm lenses (thanks to the kindness of a local camera store), and the Minolta Rokkor Si 28mm f/2.5 was the clear IQ winner by a healthy margin.
