Practice the basketball plays against live defense ☐ I see many coaches get frustrated when their team can run the plays perfectly 5 on 0 at practice but then look like they've never even heard of the plays during games. You must practice against real defenders if you want the plays to be effective in real basketball situations.

Another type of motion offense is the 3-out, 2-in offense, and it is a great offense for big teams with more than one highly skilled post player. Three guards play on the perimeter, while the two posts play on the blocks or in the high post. In most versions of 3-Out Motion, the post players cross screen for one another, then flash to the ball.
