“Entrepreneurship is back on the rise. As Canada’s bank for entrepreneurs, we couldn’t be prouder of the choice that more and more Canadians from increasingly diverse backgrounds are making. As an example, women’s entrepreneurship is growing about three times faster than entrepreneurship among men. Canadian entrepreneurship is vital to Canada’s prosperity; it is changing positively,” says BDC President and CEO Michael Denham.

valuable contributions to economic growth and innovation all across the country, but many of them have gotten to where they are now having to face challenges that white people simply do not and have never had. In light of these troubling realizations, the government has decided to increase continued and growing success for Black Canadians through the new BEP initiative.
