I'm very happy with denon avr 591 receiver. My first receiver was a samsung, included in a kit (home theater in a box). The difference is big. Sound quality is great. I'm using jbl control 1 speakers in front and for surround. Center speaker is from the old samsung ht, and old subwoofer didn't work with this receiver.

The AVR-591 is a solid receiver that does everything I need it to do. This is my 1st Denon product and I must say that it seems to "ooze" quality. Using the included mic with the auto setup program was simple and produced great results when using 5.1 for movies. Needless to say I'm very happy with my purchase.
