NGOs are receiving increasing international attention and resources from policy makers, donors, academics and others. The New Policy Agenda accepts NGOs as agents for social welfare alongside the state and as fostering democracy in the Developing World.

Astonishingly,
however, there have been very few studies
and no books on NGO field workers.

This study of field
workers in Bangladesh, provides excellent insights into
this neglected field.
Bangladesh is an excellent example as,
since independence
in 1971, it has been a

at key events in IAU's
history, its mission
and significant
activities over time,
and remarks on the current global context
informing its quest to promote academic partnerships and
solidarity on a global scale. Part II -
