G and M do activities that little kids will understand and relate to, like gardening or dancing or swimming, but they are also pretty amusing for adult readers (some are clever, eg. in one book, George sprays Martha with water, Martha is furious, at the end you don't actually see her spraying George back, but you know she does; others are very sweet, eg. Maratha's tulips wont grow in her garden, so George goes to the florist and buys flowers and puts the stems in her garden to cheer her up).

I enjoyed reading George and Martha Encore. It's been years and years since I've read it, and it was just as enjoyable today as it was then. Within this little book there are five short stories: "The Dance Recital", "The French Lesson", "The Disguise", "The Beach", and "The Garden". Good, simple, easy to read short stories.
