The Goon is a great comic book! Eric Powell is awesome. These library editions are huge and I really dig them and the print quality is excellent. The only bad thing I can say is that it does not reprint the Satan's Sodomy Baby one shot, however I guess that's to be expected. I'm collecting them all.

The Goon Library Edition Vol.4!!! After reading all these coherent stories of superheroes and twilight zones, I went the other way and read a fuck-all story. The Goon, the only series where you see a sad group of female workers escaping a burning factory in one issue, and Goon beating up gay-sparkling-vampires the other.

The Goon Library Edition Vol.1!!! Finally, I got to read Goon from the start! I have the Fancy Pants Edition vol.2 & 3, but vol. 1 is near impossible to find at reasonable prices ($300 for a new copy). So when they announced a Library Edition, I definitely must fuckin' have it! I've always really been interested with this series.

The Goon Library Volume 1 by Eric Powell

Another fun-filled library edition of the Goon. This edition sees the return of Labrazio, Goon go through some tragedy, and Eric Powell's patented sense of humor. Atticus Finch shooting a giant transvestite is one of many reasons to adore this comic. The biggest reason The Goon is great?

The Goon Library Volume 3 by Eric Powell - Goodreads

The Goon Library Edition Volume 5!!! The last tome of this glorious collection! It's an all-out war in Lonely Street as Goon faces the coven of witches, especially that Longfingers bastard. So Goon assembled his team, including Franky (of course), the Mudd Brothers, Kid Gargantuan, Don Rigatt's men, and (though reluctantly) The Priest.
