To play a solo, you need a backing track that is a sequence of chords. Going deep into different types of chords and chord progressions would be too overwhelming for beginners. This is why in this guide we will only cover the basics. You will learn how to find a good backing track on Youtube.

How to Start Soloing on Guitar: Beginner-Friendly Guide

When you take a guitar solo, it's important to take your time. Don't use all of your best ideas straight away. Think of your guitar solo as if you were telling someone a cool story. You don't just jump straight to the major plot line, you set the scene and explain the key details. When you begin your guitar solo, play less.
