El Comandante, "King of Cuba," and Goyo, an exile in Miami, are the two main characters of this novel by Cristina Garcia. Their interwoven stories reveal parallels of their lives over decades: the women they love, ambitions, marks made, and marks missed. Each is a man of action who must deal with loss.

King of Cuba is a major achievement by Cristina García. This is an author who will leave her mark on contemporary literature." Philadelphia Inquirer "Fabulously absurdist. Much has been written about Havana vs. Miami... but Garcia's satirical version of events...feels fresh because Garcia sets the novel in modern times.
