It has been stated that information is the currency of the 21st century, and billions of words are added every minute to the mountains of words in the library of human existence. This mountain at most can be very intimidating and mind boggling, and navigating through the burrows and rows of words in this library, searching for new information or knowledge, can be very daunting. No wonder, through the help of technology, the world is gradually moving from “Do it for us”, to Do it yourself”. But doing it yourself, requires skills, time, patience and

When they depart military-ruled Nigeria for the West. Beautiful, self-assured Ifemelu heads for America, where despite her academic success, she is forced to grapple with what it means to be black for the first time. Quiet, thoughtful Obinze had hoped to join her, but with post-9/11 America closed to him, he instead plunges into a dangerous, undocumented life in London. Fifteen years later, they reunite in a newly democratic Nigeria, and reignite their passion—for each other and for their homeland.
