Because the book was published so long before this blog was begun (Mission Flats came out in 2003, the blog launched only in May 2009), I have not written about it much here. But you can find a few blog posts about the novel here.

Mission Flats | William Landay

Although there's a recently-published edition on offer, Mission Flats is actually author William's Landay's debut crime thriller and it first saw light of day well over a decade ago. Landay obviously aimed at the literary end of the spectrum, and attempted to blend a pacey page-turner, brimming with plots twists and artful authorial deception, with more meaningful debate on policing, personal and social issues.
