The underlying principles of NLP. The underlying principles of NLP. NLP is based on a strong belief in the possibility of change. You will discover that: People are not their behaviour. When you accept the person, you are free to change behaviour. People already possess all the resources they need to succeed and achieve their desired outcomes - they just need to learn how to unlock them.

NLP: Principles in Practice
General Principles. NLP is a model rather than a theory – and it is the study of subjective experience. NLP is a generative rather than a repair model – it emphasises finding solutions rather than analysing causes – and in NLP we always add choices, rather than take these away. Mind and body are part of the one system
