philosopher. And

Educated at the University of Chicago
and Yale University,

he had strong
interests and training
in both the history of philosophy and
contemporary
analytic philosophy,
the latter of which
came to comprise the
main focus of his work at Princeton

subsequently came to reject the tradition
of philosophy
according to which
knowledge involves
correct
representation of a
world whose
existence remains
wholly independent
of that
