Safe Barbie Bohrman

When I acquired Barbie Bohrman's previous novel, Promise Me, I remember distinctly how much I liked the supporting characters—particularly the protagonist's sassy best friend, Julia. Sure, Julia's language was off-color and risqué, but that's part of her charm. At the time, I didn't know that Barbie was planning to write a new novel about Julia, but I was ecstatic when I found out.

Review: Playing it Safe by Barbie Bohrman. December 13, ... This is my first book by Barbie Bohrman, and apparently it follows on from her first book, Promise Me. I had no clue about that, and so obviously went into this one blind, but it reads very comfortably as a standalone, and from the moment I started, I couldn't get enough of Julia and ...

Playing it Safe is a spin-off of Barbie Bohrman's debut Promise Me, featuring the wacky and love-able Julia and smoldering Alex. I have been anxiously awaiting their story for so long and it was worth the wait. Julia is one hell of a heroine. She's hilarious, foul-mouthed, quirky and very much the kind of girl you want to be best friends with.
