A real estate development starts as an idea that comes to fruition when consumers — tenants or owner-occupants — occupy the bricks and mortar (space) put in place by the development team. Land, labor, capital, management, entrepreneurship, and broadly defined partnerships are needed to transform an idea into reality.

Real estate development is the continual reconfiguration of the built environment to meet society's needs. Roads, sewer systems, housing, office buildings, and lifestyle centers do not just happen. Someone must initiate and manage the creation, maintenance, and eventual re-creation of the spaces in which we live, work, and play.
