practices from a wide variety of settings that include schools, health care organizations, workplace, and community. The 43 contributors to Health Promotion Programs focus on students and professionals interested in planning, implementing, and evaluating programs that promote health equity. In addition to the focus on best practices, each chapter contains information on:

- Identifying health promotion programs
- Eliminating health disparities
- Defining and applying health promotion theories and models
- Assessing the needs of program participants
- Creating and supporting evidence-based programs
- Implementing health promotion programs: Tools, program staff, and budgets
- Advocacy
- Communicating health information effectively
