Skin Deep is a memorable debut that will haunt you - One of the best contemporary YA novels I've ever read. Heartbreakingly beautiful and bittersweet, Jarratt has written a moving love story that shows the beauty in flaws.

Skin Deep by Laura Jarratt - Goodreads

Skin Deep tries to talk about too many social issues all at one time, ranging from murder, mental illnesses, low self-esteem, betrayal, alcohol, sex, breaks up, love, virginity, gypsies, women's rights... I could go on. There are way too many things going on in this book, I had no idea what to focus on or what Jarratt was trying to make me think.
