The Collected Stories of Elizabeth Bowen - Elizabeth Bowen ...

In his adulatory but succinct introduction to this substantial edition of Bowen's Collected Stories, novelist John Banville suggests that the tragedies which were to follow, while terrible, might also have been the making of her as a writer. In 1906, Bowen's father had a nervous breakdown and was committed to a mental institution.

Review: Collected Stories by Elizabeth Bowen | The National

THE COLLECTED STORIES OF ELIZABETH BOWEN. ... But Bowen's stories--which in their relative brevity read more as old, good tweed than do the novels--display other, odder, richer resonances too. Ghosts ("\"Footholds\"") are a calmly accepted conduit of wisdom. Table talk has all the volleying speed of Ivy Compton-Burnett but minus the viciousness ...
