The Presence book by Heather Graham - ThriftBooks

The Presence by Heather Graham. Prologue. Nightmares. The scream rose and echoed in the night with a bloodcurdling resonance that only the truly young, and truly terrified, could create. Her parents ran into the room, called by instinct to battle whatever force had brought about such absolute horror in their beloved child.

Harrison Investigation Series by Heather Graham

I've read just about all of Heather Graham's books, and I've loved them all. 'The Presence' is a good book, but, for me, it didn't grab me by the throat like some of her other books did. I absolutely love the 'Krewe of Hunters' series; I hope she continues to add more and more books to that collection.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: The Presence

One series that she has become particularly well known for is that of her ongoing Harrison Investigation series, which totals over ten titles so far and counting. With two of the titles, "The Presence" along with "The Killing Edge", being two stand-alone novels featuring characters from the series, there are eight titles following in chronological order.
