The Shepherd relates the story of a De Havilland Vampire pilot, going home on Christmas Eve 1957, whose aircraft suffers a complete electrical failure en route from RAF Celle (note: in fact, Celle had ceased to be an RAF station less than a month previously; see link) in northern Germany to RAF Lakenheath in Suffolk. Lost in fog and low on fuel, he is met and led (or shepherded) to a disused ...

The Shepherd's Life is most vivid when the author tells everyday shepherding stories, focused on his flock of sturdy Herdwick sheep. He writes relatively little about the landscape, though there are a few lyrical passages. The meat of the book is the business of shepherding, which is mentally demanding (like that of all skilled businesses) because rearing, selling and buying lambs, at the ...

The Shepherd
How sweet is the Shepherd's sweet lot!
From the morn to the evening he strays;
He shall follow his sheep all the day,
And his tongue shall be filled with praise.
For he hears the lamb's innocent call,
And he hears the ewe's tender reply;
He is watchful while they are in peace,
For they know when their Shepherd is nigh.
