Forests aren't just found on mountain sides or in wild, untouched places. You call a forest home, whether you know it or not. All the trees within your community make up a forest—from the pine tree outside your bedroom window to the maple tree you pass on your daily commute.

My Tree—Our Forest - National Association of State Foresters

A Forest Ramble I have lately been surveying the Walden woods so extensively and minutely that I now see it mapped in my mind's eye--as indeed, on paper-as so many men's wood-lots . . . I fear this particular dry knowledge may affect my imagination and fancy, that it will not be easy to see so much wildness and native vigor there as formerly.
