From #1 New York Times Bestseller Vi Keeland, comes a new, sexy standalone novel. Bennett Fox walked into my life on one hell of a crappy Monday morning. I was late for the first day at my new job—a job I 'd now have to compete for even though I 'd already worked eight years to earn it, because of an unexpected merger. While I lugged my belongings up to my new office, a meter maid wrote me a parking summons. She 'd ticketed a long line of cars—except for the Audi parked in front of me, which happened to be the same make and model as mine. Annoyed, I decided to regift my ticket to the car that had evaded a fine. Chances were, the owner would pay it and be none the wiser. Except, I accidentally broke the windshield wiper while slipping the ticket onto the car 's window. Seriously, my day couldn 't get any worse. Things started to perk up when I ran into a gorgeous man in the elevator. We had one of those brief moments that only happened in movies. You know the deal...your body lights up, fireworks go off, and the air around you crackles with electricity. His heated stare left me flush when I stepped off the elevator. Maybe things here wouldn 't be so bad after all. Or so I thought. Until I walked into my new boss 's office and met my competition. The gorgeous man from the elevator was now my nemesis. His heated stare wasn 't because of any mutual attraction. It was because he 'd saw me vandalize his car. And now he couldn 't wait to annihilate his rival. There 's a fine line between love and hate—and we shouldn 't cross it. We shouldn 't—but straddling that line could be so much fun.

Dear Reader, Being trapped in a bedroom with a woman is a grand thing. Being trapped in hundreds of bedrooms over two thousand years isn't. And being cursed into a book as a love-slave for eternity can ruin even a Spartan warrior's day. As a love-slave, I know everything about women. How to touch them, how to savor them, and most of all, how to pleasure them. But when I was summoned to fulfill Grace Alexander's sexual fantasies, I found the first woman in history who saw me as a man with a tormented past. She alone bothered to take me out of the bedroom and onto the world. She taught me to love again. But I was not born to love. I was cursed to walk eternity alone. As a general, I had long ago accepted my sentence. Yet now I have found Grace--the one thing my wounded heart cannot survive without. Sure, love can heal all wounds, but can it break a two-thousand-year-old curse?

The Archangel Michael has been despondent lately. He's become passively suicidal, not willing to end it, but making slip-ups on the job that could kill him. He comes close and is kicked out heaven. Pissed at his failed attempt, he takes off and finds Jahi, a demonic prostitute, on a roof in downtown Los Angeles. He can't bring himself to kill her, so he takes her captive, and sparks fly. What happens if an angel falls in love with a demon? Jahi has finally clawed her way out of hell and is ready to start a new life on earth, but it wasn't quite like she had imagined, and that was before she was captured by an Archangel. All she wants is to be free to make her own choices, live the life she chooses. Is she willing to give that up for Michael? The demons have found a new drug that makes them stronger. Can Michael and Gabriel stop them in time to prevent a power shift in Los Angeles? Caution: This book contains scenes that are intended for adults only. You probably won't want to bring it to church with you.
