Would you know important contact information for members of your family if they needed someone to step in during an emergency? Do you know what would happen to the day to day functioning of your household in the case of an emergency? Are you able to locate important telephone numbers, addresses and policy numbers at a moment's notice? The June 2008 issue of Money recommended the creation of a "single guide" to store important information. This "should cover: monthly bills...bank accounts... retirement accounts...brokerage and fund accounts...insurance policies...wills and medical directives..." Created by the Organizing 4 U team of Muffy Kaesberg and JoEllen Salkin, Where Can I Find It?(c) provides plenty of room to complete all the above information and more!

At the end of this book, your child should be able to identify how John Cabot and Henry Hudson searched for the Northwest Passage. What was this passage and what was its significance in the exploration of the Americas. Further, your child should be able to locate the regions and when they were discovered. Did the search come without hardships? Know the answers and more!
